- Please see the instructions for getting a Google+ Profile below.
- If you already have a gmail account, log-in and skip to Step 4 on page 6 of this document.
- If you already have a Google+ profile skip to page 14 to join the Resiliency Community.

Step 1:

- Create a gmail account by going to www.gmail.com and clicking on the “CREATE AN ACCOUNT” button in the upper righthand side.

Step 2:

- Fill out the inputs then click on “Next step.”

Take it all with you.

A Google Account lets you access all your stuff — Gmail, photos, and more — from any device. Search by taking pictures, or by voice. Get free turn-by-turn navigation, upload your pictures automatically, and even buy things with your phone using Google Wallet.

Share a little. Or share a lot.

Share selectively with friends, family (maybe even your boss) on Google+. Start a video call with friends, send a message to a group all at once, or just follow posts from people who fascinate you. Your call.

Work in the future.

Get a jump on the next era of doing, well, everything. Watch as colleagues or partners drop in a photo, update a spreadsheet, or improve a paragraph, in real-time, from 1,000 miles away. Google Docs is free with a Google Account.

NOTE: Birthday is a required field. For compliance reasons, Google must confirm that you are at least 13.

Step 3

- It will prompt you to add your profile photo. It must be at least 250 pixels wide and 250 pixels tall.
 - Click on “ Add Profile Photo”

Your profile

Now that you have a Google Account, create your Google profile. It's how you represent yourself publicly on the web, and helps friends and family find each other easily. Your profile also lets you publicly "+1" things you love on the web, so you and your friends benefit from each other's impeccable taste – in search results, on sites across the web, even on ads. Your profile is public, and can include as little as your name, or as much as you feel like adding – it's up to you. About profiles.

Put a face to your name

About Google+

Google+ is more than just another site to visit. It's a new way to communicate across all of Google. Whether you're using Maps, Gmail, YouTube, Search, or any other Google product, Google+ makes it easy to share the right things with the right people. About Google+.

This step is optional. Click on "Next Step" if you don't want to add a picture now. This can be done at any time.

- Upload a photo and set as profile photo.

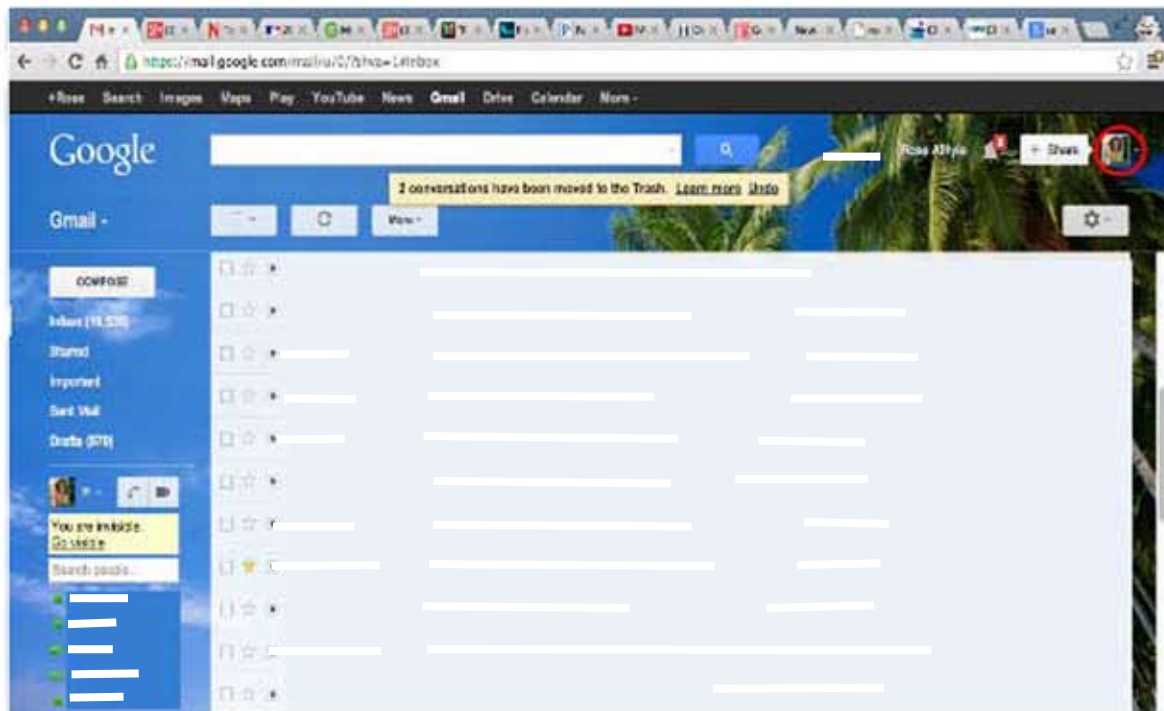

- Click on “Next step” then on “Continue to Gmail.”

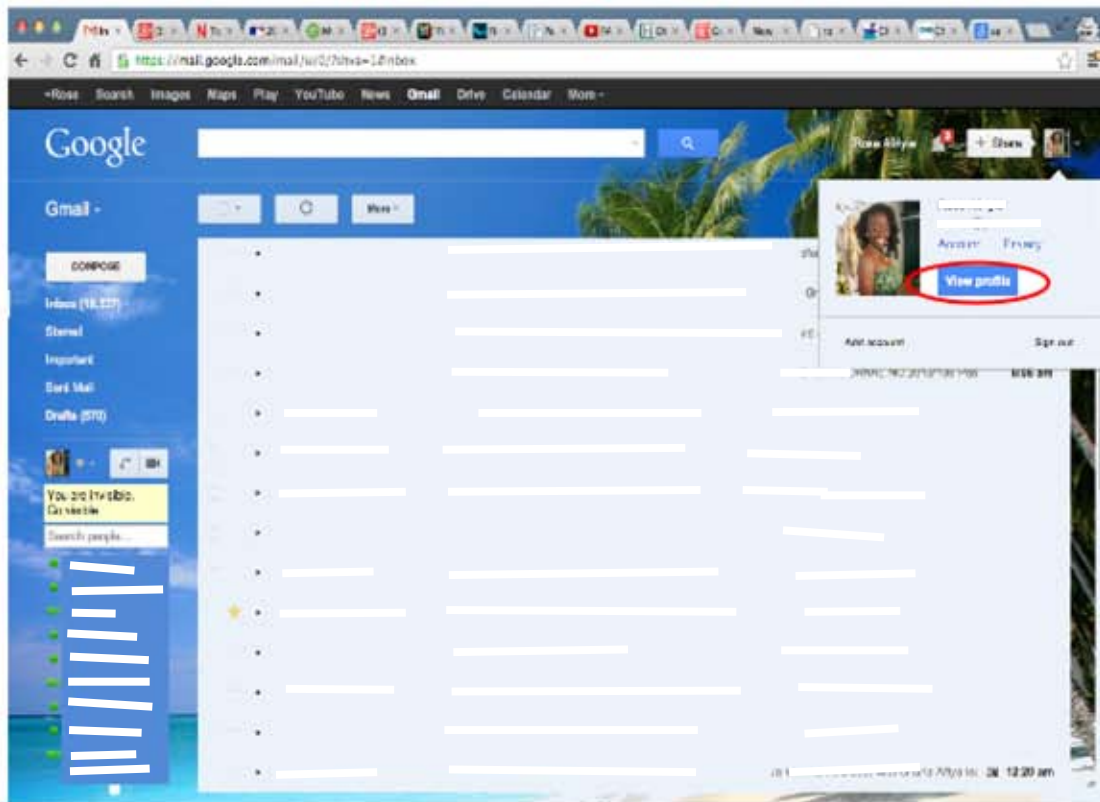

Step 4:

- At the upper right hand corner of the page next to the "Share" button you should see a picture icon. Click on the downward pointing arrow next to the icon.

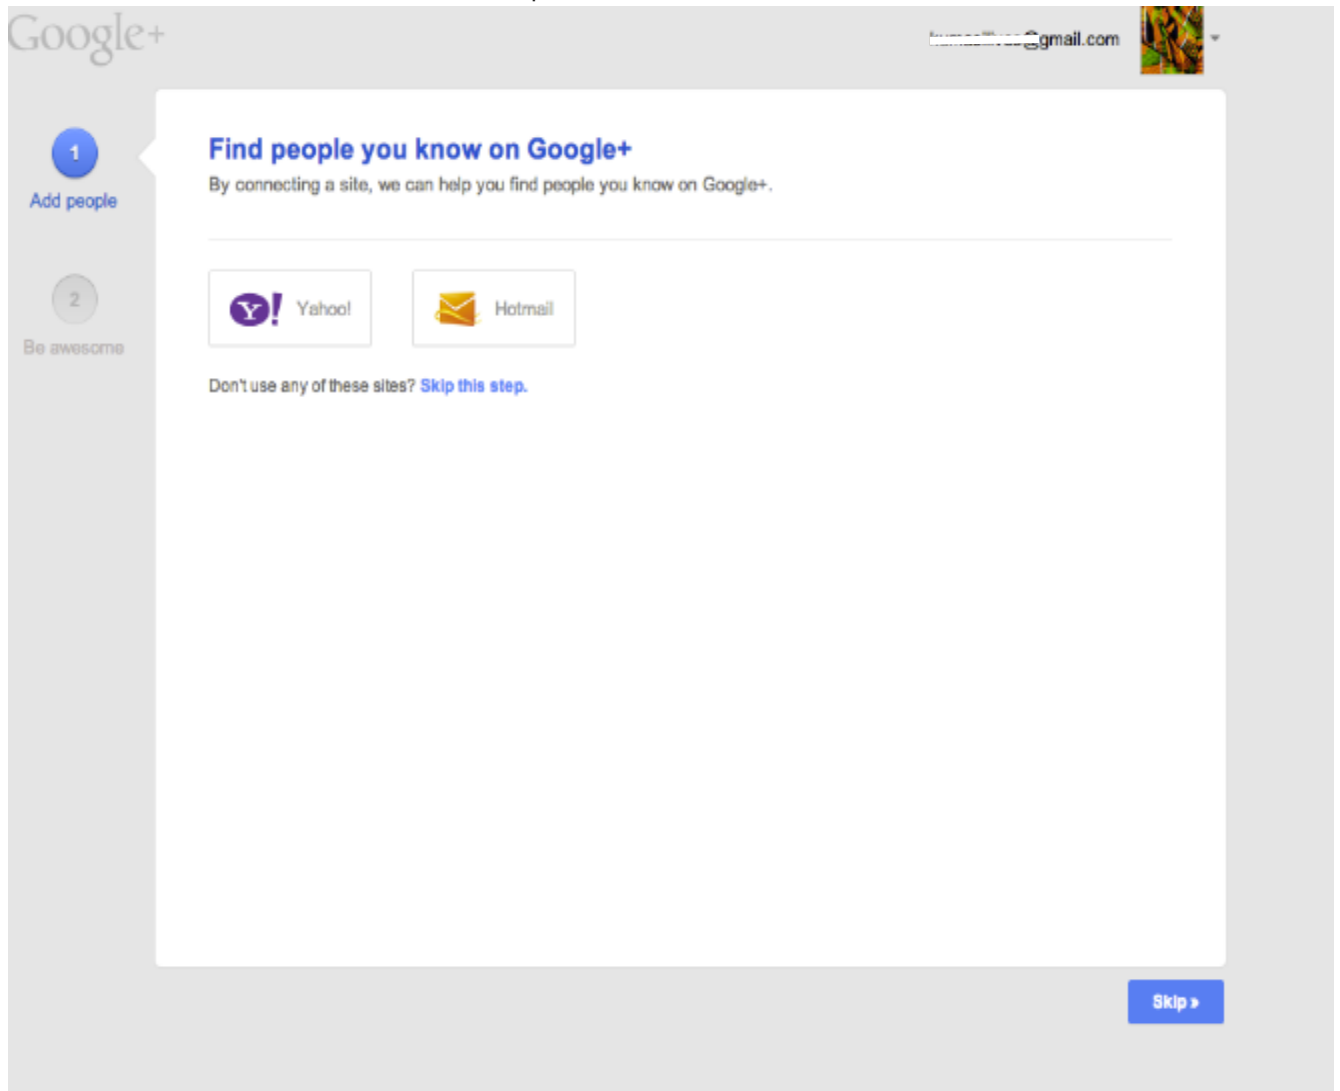

Step 5:

- It should display a big blue button, which says "View Profile"; click on "View Profile."

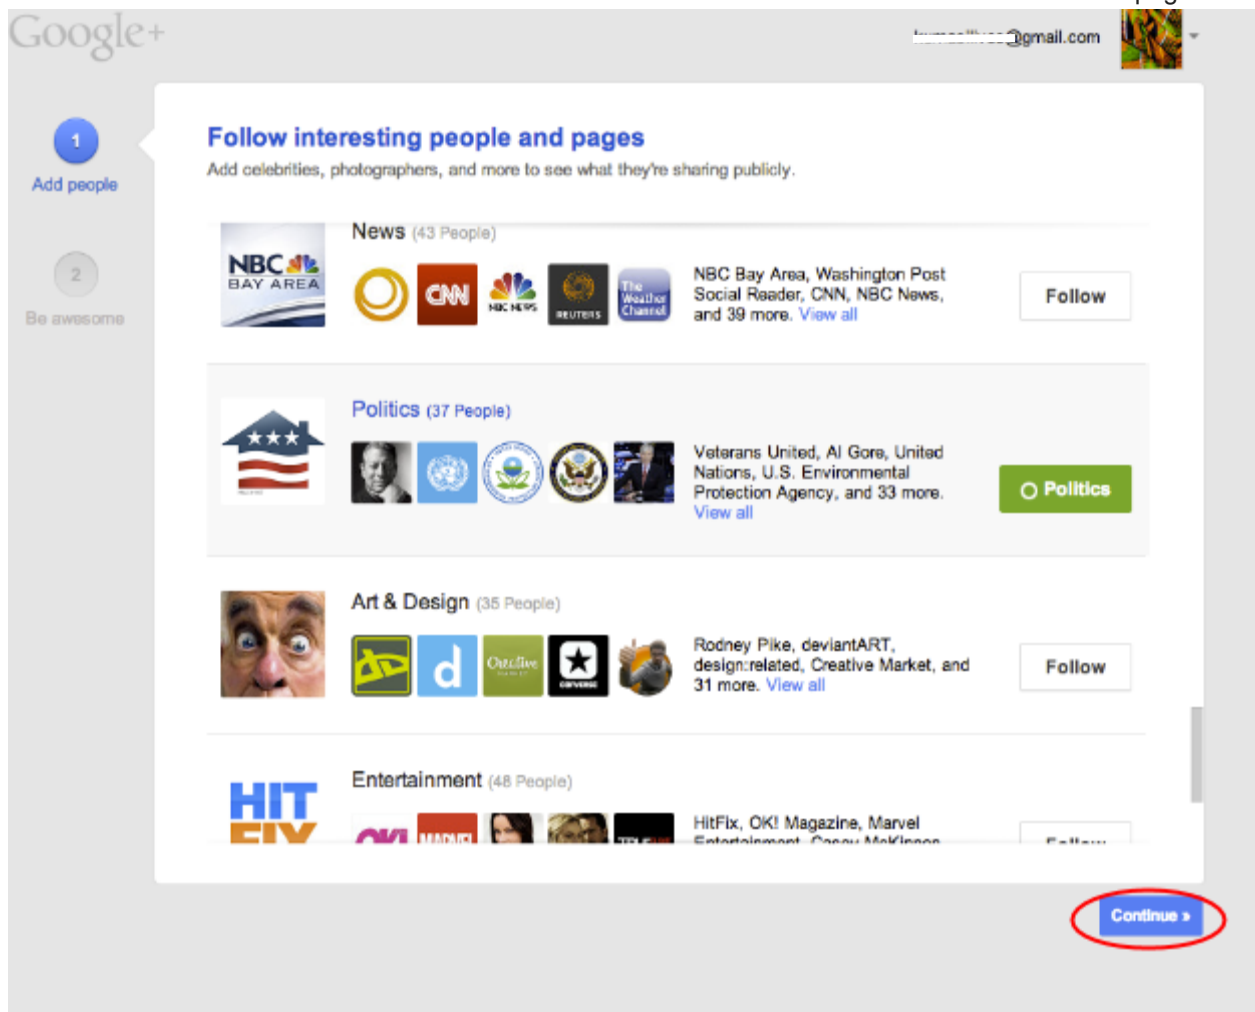

Step 6:

- Once you are in your profile, you will see a number of options to help populate information on your profile:
 - You can choose to add or skip.

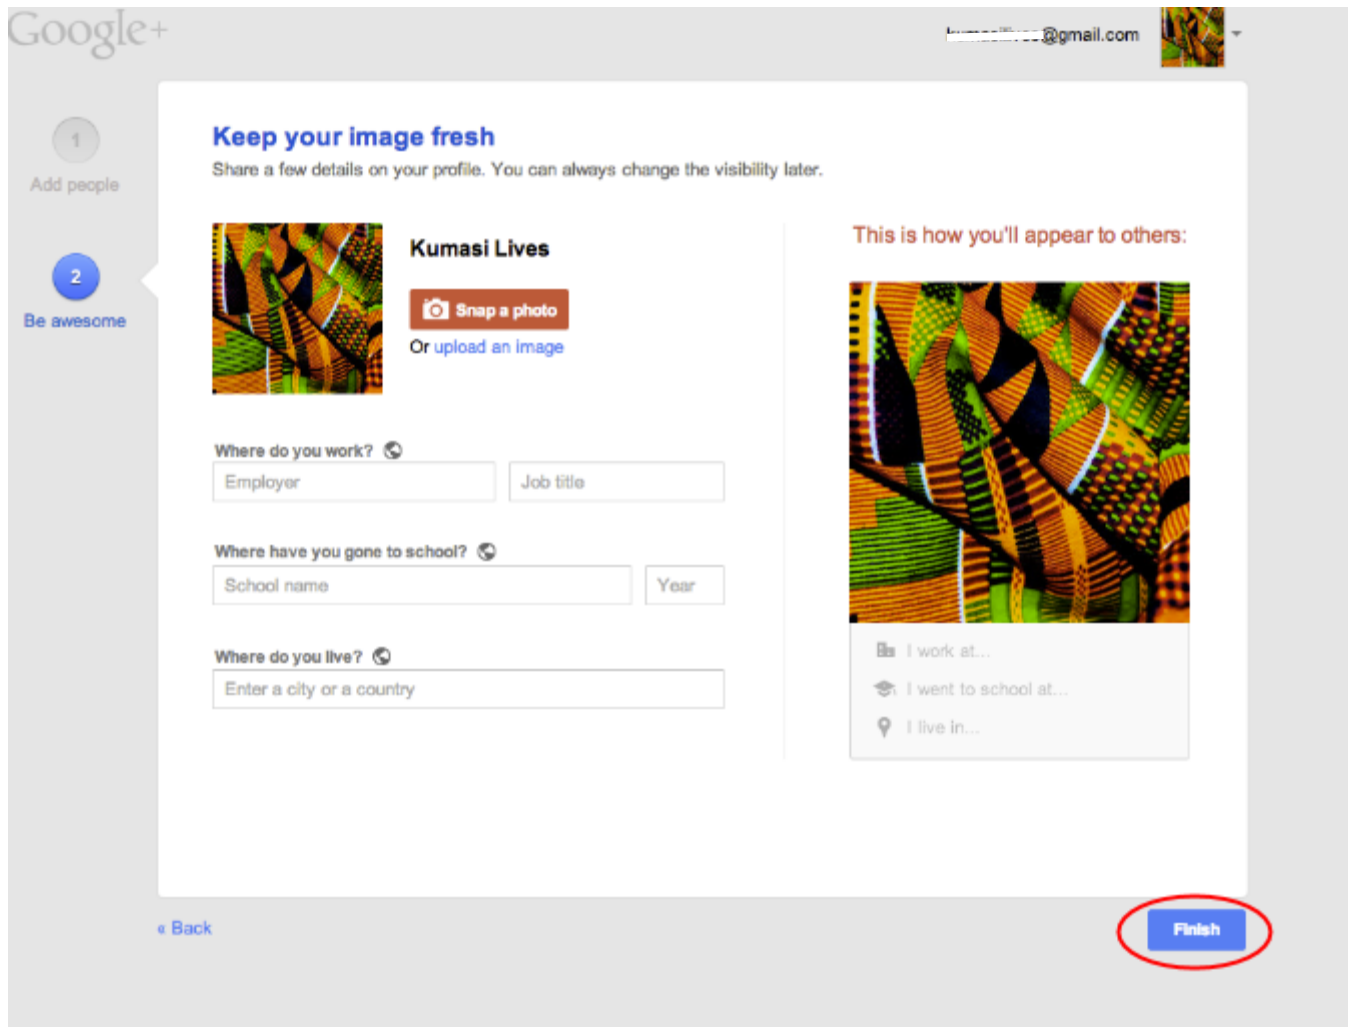

This step is optional. Click on "Next Step" if you don't want to add contacts now. This can be done at any time.

- Choose to add a bulk amount of followers or not then click “Continue” at the bottom of the page.

This step is optional. Click on "Next Step" if you don't want to "follow" people now. This can be done at any time.

- Include details of the organization you work for and the city where you live. Then click finish.

The image shows the Google+ profile setup interface. On the left, there are two numbered steps: '1 Add people' and '2 Be awesome'. The main content area is titled 'Keep your image fresh' with the subtitle 'Share a few details on your profile. You can always change the visibility later.' Below this, there is a profile picture placeholder with the text 'Kumasi Lives' and options to 'Snap a photo' or 'Or upload an image'. To the right, a preview shows 'This is how you'll appear to others:' with a sample profile picture and a list of fields: 'I work at...', 'I went to school at...', and 'I live in...'. The form fields on the left are: 'Where do you work?' with 'Employer' and 'Job title' sub-fields; 'Where have you gone to school?' with 'School name' and 'Year' sub-fields; and 'Where do you live?' with a single 'Enter a city or a country' field. At the bottom, there is a 'Back' link on the left and a 'Finish' button on the right, which is circled in red.

The first and greatest symbol of resiliency after 9/11 was the iconic Koenig Sphere, damaged in the attacks but emerging from the ruins as the only structure of the WTC to survive intact. For 30 years it stood in the center of the WTC plaza as a symbol of world peace.
